

FACULTY DECIDES ON GRADUATION LISTS

Business High School Diplomas for Many Pupils.

COMMENCEMENT DATE FIXED

Class the Largest Ever to Be Sent Forth From a Local Public School of Highest Grade—Commissioner Macfarland to Preside at Exercises June 16.

The final meeting of the faculty of the Business High School was held at that institution yesterday afternoon, and the list of students who are to graduate in the class of 1902 was decided upon. The class comprises 156 pupils, which is very nearly 50 per cent larger than any class that has ever been graduated from a Washington High School.

The commencement exercises of the Business School will be held at the New National Theater on Monday evening, June 16. As upon former occasions, Commissioner Macfarland will preside, and Commissioner Ross will present the diplomas to the students. A portion of the United States Marine Band, comprising thirteen pieces, with Lieutenant Santelmann as leader, will furnish the musical program. Almost the entire Board of Education will be present and occupy seats upon the stage.

Excursions.

Cabin John.

Decorations Day starts the season at Cabin John. The formal opening of this well-known summer resort under the management of the popular Bobbing Bros. is an occasion that will attract thousands of visitors. Cabin John is Washington's ideal suburban retreat. The spacious grounds and lawns, shaded by beautiful trees, are amply provided with seats. Delightful music rendered by Haley's Band will assist in making the day a delightful one to all. The winding paths lead to the placid Potomac, where boats can be hired, and the enthusiastic nimmers may enjoy themselves to their hearts' content. The many improvements at Cabin John will prove of interest to every holiday visitor. Cabin John Hotel, with its excellent cuisine and service, has all the delicacies of the season for the epicurean. Table d'hôte and a la carte dinners are elegantly served at the most reasonable prices.

In the evening, Cabin John will be illuminated with myriads of electric lights, making the scene one of fairy-land and beauty, and when you return from your Decoration Day outing it will be with the recollection of a most pleasant and enjoyable day spent at Cabin John.

Chesapeake Beach.

The fine weather which has prevailed for the last week or two has only served to remind the people of Washington that they need some place to go to and forget the cares of home and where they can keep cool and comfortable. Just such recreation presents itself by the opening on Decoration Day of Chesapeake Beach, the popular salt water resort down on the bay. Here it is that the cool salt breezes sweeping across the broad expanse of waters afford a relief from the sweltering heat for the thousands of visitors. Each year sees different improvements at the beach in the way of comforts, conveniences, and amusements for the patrons. The grounds and lawns are beautiful, shady spots provided with tables and benches for picnic parties being in abundance. A new attraction has been added in the way of a cool and commodious vaudeville theater on the boardwalk, where first-class acts will be presented. At 4:30 each afternoon a thrilling event in the way of a balloon ascension and parachute drop may be enjoyed.

Pending the arrival of the new electric locomotive, now nearly completed, passengers will leave the District line station and, returning, be delivered to the Columbia Street Railway cars at Deanwood siding, where special empty cars will be in waiting for all beach passengers.

Bathing has already commenced at the beach, quite a number having enjoyed the invigorating waters last Sunday, the temperature of the water at that time being 72 degrees. Additional bath-houses have been built to take care of the ever-increasing business. It is safe to say that no one visiting the beach this year will return without the full intention to revisit this popular resort at the earliest opportunity.

Marshall Hall.

Pleasure will reign supreme at Marshall Hall tomorrow. The entire grounds will be in their gayest holiday attire. Amusements of all kinds will be in active operation. Dancing all day and evening. Patriotic music both on the boat and grounds. Planked shad dinner, including the celebrated Marshall Hall clam chowder, will be served on arrival of the boat. The steamer Charles Maclester will leave for Marshall Hall tomorrow at 10 a. m., 2:30 p. m., and 4:30 p. m., returning leave the Hall at 12:30, 4:30, 7:45, and 10:30 p. m.

Mount Vernon.

Mount Vernon, home and tomb of Washington, will be the objective point for the patriotic tomorrow. Steamer Charles Maclester will make two trips, leaving Seventh Street wharf at 10 a. m. and 2:30 p. m., returning due to arrive at Washington at 2:15 and 6:15 p. m. There is an elegant dining room on the steamer.

Fort Myer, Arlington, and Falls Church. A speedy and accessible way to the National Cemetery is by the Fort Myer, Arlington and Falls Church Railroad. Coaches will be at the Georgetown end of Aqueduct Bridge for all trains. The electric cars will run on a fifteen-minute schedule from Aqueduct Bridge between the hours of 6:15 a. m. to midnight.

Steamer Jane Moseley.

The Freedman Transportation Company, purchasers of the steamer Jane Moseley, has been informed by the former owners of the boat that on account of the extensive repairs being made to the ship they would be unable to complete the work so that the boat would be ready for the Memorial Day excursion, but would have her in thorough and first-class condition, delivered to the company in Washington, June 15.

Marine Band Concert Today.

The Marine Band will give a concert at the Marine Barracks this afternoon at 5:50 p. m. The program will be as follows: March, "The Inevitable Eagle"; Sousa, Overture, "Le Bonheur"; Kuller, Ballad, "Coppelia"; Delibes, Grand fantasia, "La Gioconda"; Pizzetti, "The Volturno"; Santelmann, (a) Marche celebre in F; (b) Rubinstein, (New national hymn (first time)). General Lippert, Selection, "Florence".

Favorite Beverages.

True merit always wins. An article to read general favor must have merit. The Washington Brewery Company's Export and Culmbacher Beers are considered quite favorite beverages on the tables of the best families of this city. The bottling establishment, though a few years in existence, has made wonderful strides, which illustrates the popularity of this brewery's products.

For Arlington National Cemetery Decoration Day, May 30, Electric cars run every ten minutes from south end Aqueduct Bridge. Coaches across bridge.

POLICE DO NOT LIKE SHORT SUMMER COATS

Not So Cool as They Seem, Bluecoats Say.

Considerable agitation has been caused in police circles because of the summer uniform prescribed by Major Sylvester for the members of this city's "finest." The short summer coats, the men complain, are not as cool as they were represented to be, and have not the gloss which characterizes the uniforms worn by the policemen in days gone by.

The police of the Capital City force take considerable pride in their personal appearance, and argue that a great deal more nobly uniform could be secured for them.

The uniform which is the most popular with the men, and undoubtedly is the best in appearance, is that worn by members of the force several years ago, the main feature of which was white, cool-looking vests, with brass buttons. By wearing such a vest the policemen were at liberty to leave their blouses open, and the snowy white vests showed up to advantage.

As it is now the men are forced to keep their coats buttoned up despite the intense heat. The last named change is very much desired by the men as adding to their personal appearance, and, it is thought, Major Sylvester may possibly see his way clear to adopt such a change.

POLICE TAKE CARE OF MOTHER AND CHILDREN

Woman Who Intended Moving to Philadelphia Stranded Here.

Mrs. Margaret L. Benrick and her three children, the eldest five years old, of 1109 I Street northwest, spent last night at the House of Detention. The woman had shipped all of her furniture to Philadelphia, where she intended to live in the future. She was, however, unable to raise the amount of money necessary to make the trip, and as a result both she and her little ones were homeless.

The unfortunate mother appealed to the police for aid, and the little family was comfortably installed at the House of Detention.

The husband of the woman works at a small town located near Philadelphia. The Associated Charities were notified of the case this morning, and it is thought will furnish Mrs. Benrick with transportation to the Quaker City.

REV. MR. ROUSMANIER LIKELY TO ACCEPT

Clergyman Expected to Take the St. John's Rectorship.

Rev. E. S. Rousmanier, of Providence, R. I., who has been called to the rectorship of St. John's Parish, left Washington this morning without announcing his decision in regard to accepting the call.

Rev. Mr. Rousmanier was in conference with Bishop Mackay-Smith, the former rector of the church, during his stay here, and it is regarded as almost certain that his intention is to assume charge of the parish in the near future. His decision will be announced by letter to the church authorities in the course of the next week.

During his brief stay in Washington Mr. Rousmanier was the guest of Mr. Henry E. Pollew, 1637 Massachusetts Avenue northwest.
